

MUSIC TEACHERS NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

BENJAMIN WHITTEN COLLEGIATE CHAPTER OF THE YEAR WIN $500 FOR YOUR COLLEGIATE CHAPTER!

What: Each year MTNA recognizes an outstanding student chapter, its advisor and members for showing an exceptional level and depth of activities.

Who: Every MTNA collegiate chapter is encouraged to apply.

Why: You could win $500 for your chapter and be recognized at the MTNA National Conference, March 24–28, 2012, in New York, New York.

When: Applications must be postmarked by December 1, 2011.

How: Submit four copies of the following materials about your chapter activities during the 2011–2012 school year:

- A typed annotated list of chapter activities for the 2011–2012 school year.
- Materials supporting these activities such as programs, invitations, fliers, budget and outcome reports, newspaper articles and so on.

You should include materials and documentation for all activities—those that have already occurred and those planned for the remainder of the 2011–2012 academic year. You may submit any number of activity descriptions.

As you list your activities, please consider the following award criteria:

- Student membership involvement: Did/will the majority of members participate?
- Contribution to the benefit or growth of the chapter: How did/will the activities build chapter membership and participation?
- Contribution to and involvement with other musical organizations and the general community: How did/will chapter activities benefit your school, other organizations and/or the community?
- Creativity: Are activities a result of new concepts or lessons learned from past attempts?
- Attainment of goals: How did/will activities meet educational, membership, fundraising, outreach or other goals for the chapter, community or campus?

Send all application materials postmarked by December 1, 2011, to Music Teachers National Association, Attn: Collegiate Chapter of the Year Award, 441 Vine St., Ste. 3100, Cincinnati, OH 45202-3004.
